1. General guidelines

- In order to purchase the products or services on sale through this virtual shop, you need to fill in the fields with the necessary details and accept the general conditions. This acceptance represents the full, express and unreserved agreement with all the general conditions set out in the version published by Einsmer and which will be binding on both parties.
- Purchases can be made in English, Catalan, Spanish or French.
- Einsmer will do its utmost to ensure that the products and services offered are legally covered, have quality guarantees and, if necessary, the corresponding insurance cover.
- With regard to the purchase of tickets for performances, Einsmer will do its utmost to allocate the best seats according to availability at the time of booking.
- The system will issue a personal voucher listing the services and products purchased and specifying the total price and taxes.
- All transactions will be carried out through the on-line payment system of the savings bank Caixa Catalunya, with the guarantee that all your personal details remain confidential and cannot be viewed by other people.
- Payment can be made with credit cards issued by the Visa, Master Card and American Express networks.
- Following confirmation of payment, the transaction will be deemed to be final and you will receive an e-mail confirming the details of your transaction.

2. Types of payment.

- Customers must pay the full amount of the on-line value for some products and services whereas others only require a deposit. In the latter case, the outstanding amount will be paid directly to the service provider.
- All prices and payments are fully inclusive of all taxes.

3. Exchanging your voucher

- The voucher will show the place/s where you can exchange it for the appropriate service or ticket. This is usually the place where the service is provided, the venue where the performance is being held or one of Einsmer's information offices.
- To receive your ticket or the service, you will need to hand in the original voucher showing proof of purchase and the document giving proof of identity.

4. Cancellations, changes and alterations

- After payment, changes and cancellations can only be made up to 48 hours before the service is provided.
- Changes and cancellations must always be made through our call centre (Tel.: +34 933770014; or by e-mail einsmer@einsmer.com), who will confirm such changes and cancellations and process any refunds.
- No changes can be made less than 48 hours before the service is provided.
- Einsmer will not be responsible for the following:
 - Any cancellations or changes made to the scheduled performance or service by the promoter.
 - The contents of the performances.
 - Cancellations due to force majeure.

5. Procedures for formalizing the contract

- Once customers have selected the products or services, they must click on the "buy now" button and fill in the form with their details. From this moment, they will be deemed to be Einsmer customers and it will be understood that they accept all the general conditions of purchase and the specific conditions of each product or service.
- In order to finalize their purchase, customers will have to provide their credit card details on the secure payment system of Caixa Catalunya, to proceed with payment or receive confirmation of purchase.
- The system will send a voucher to their e-mail address which will serve as proof of purchase.
- When purchasing several products or services, the system will issue a voucher for each type of service and provider.
- If customers don't receive their voucher or mislay it, they should contact our call centre. Tel: +34 933770014 - E-mail: einsmer@einsmer.com.
- Einsmer undertakes to guarantee that the service will be provided on the dates agreed under the usual quality conditions in each case, whether it is the provider of the services or acts as an intermediary.

6. Arbitration and applicable laws

Any disagreements or differences will be resolved by the Junta Arbitral de Consume de Barcelona (Barcelona Board of Consumer Arbitration) or, if necessary, the Barcelona Courts and the statutory regulations in force regarding e-commerce and Spanish law will be applied.
